

In district prayagraj we have cover 2609 villages out of 2634 rest villages the plan for we Gray Water Management (GWM) initiative has successfully covered, contributing to water conservation and environmental sustainability. To achieve complete rural coverage, it is essential to extend GWM solutions to the remaining villages. This proposal outlines a strategy for implementing GWM in uncovered areas, ensuring effective wastewater treatment, reuse, and community participation.